Policy Type	Synthetic Homeowners Policy - Training Use
Policy Period	January 1, 2026 to January 1, 2027

SECTION I - PROPERTY COVERAGES

Accidental Direct Physical Loss. Subject to the terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of this policy, coverage may apply to accidental direct physical loss to covered property.

Water-Related Loss Provision

The policy may provide coverage for sudden and accidental discharge or overflow of water from within a plumbing system, household appliance, or related fixture when the resulting direct physical damage is otherwise covered.

Repeated or Long-Term Leakage

Loss caused by repeated seepage or leakage of water, or the presence or condensation of humidity, moisture, or vapor, occurring over a period of weeks, months, or years may be excluded from coverage, subject to the full policy wording and applicable endorsements.

Maintenance / Deterioration

Wear and tear, deterioration, corrosion, mechanical breakdown, and faulty or inadequate maintenance may be subject to exclusions or limitations. Resulting damage may be treated differently depending on the applicable policy language and facts of the loss.
